

ADDRESSES, EDITORIALS, ARTICLES, ETC., PRINTED IN THE APPENDIX

On request, and by unanimous consent, addresses, editorials, articles, etc., were ordered to be printed in the Appendix, as follows:

By Mr. ANDERSON:

Address entitled "A Short Look Behind the Recreation Report," delivered by M. Frederick Smith, vice president of the Prudential Insurance Co., before a recent meeting of the American Pulpwood Association convention in New York, being a discussion of the report of the Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Commission, which will appear hereafter in the Appendix.

By Mr. SPARKMAN:

Address on higher standards for radio and television programs, delivered by Dr. T. Earle Johnson, of the University of Alabama, and television editorial comment thereon.

By Mr. BEALL:

Editorial entitled "Richard C. Harlow," published in the Carroll County (Md.) Times of March 1, 1962, being a eulogy of Richard C. Harlow, nationally known football coach and humanitarian, a resident of Maryland.

By Mr. CASE of New Jersey:

Editorial entitled "There Stands a Man," published in the Paterson (N.J.) News of February 27, 1962, being a tribute to Col. John H. Glenn.

Report entitled "Mission to Berlin (II) and West Germany—1961," delivered by Rabbi Martin M. Weitz, following a tour of Germany.

By Mr. LONG of Missouri:

Article entitled "A Visit With the Manager," written by Joe R. Hinds, and published in the Rural Electric Missourian of recent date, dealing with the interrelationship between our Nation's youth and our Nation's woods and streams.

By Mr. MUNDT:

Article entitled "Our Real Strength Is in Small Towns," written by George E. Sokolsky and published in a recent edition of the Washington Post.

By Mr. CARROLL:

Excerpt from article entitled "Colorado Springs," published in This Week magazine for March 11, 1962; also an article entitled "Center Well Qualified for Intelligence Post," published in the Washington Evening Star of March 10, 1962, being a biographical sketch of Maj. Gen. Marshall Sylvester Carter, U.S. Army, newly appointed Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

By Mr. WILLY:

Article entitled "Higher Circulation, Ad Linage and Profits: Dealing with American newspapers," published in the National Publisher.